4 中学生の武(Takeshi)と、武のクラスに短期留学で来日したフィンランド人留学生ニック(Nick)が、部活動に関する記事を見ながら話しています。会話文を読んであとの問いに答えなさい。*印の語は、本文のあとに注があります。

Nick: I can't decide which club I should join. There are too many clubs at this school. What club are you in, Takeshi?

Takeshi: Me? I'm a member of the soccer club. Actually there are not enough players in our club, and we need more players now. Maybe you can join us!

Nick: Need more players?

Takeshi: Well, you know, a soccer team needs eleven players, but there are only eight in our club. So when we play soccer, our club has to ask some players from other schools to come and play together.

Nick: Wow, that's hard. Does it happen only at this school?

Takeshi: No, it's almost the same for other schools, too. As *Figure 1 shows,

Nick: Yeah, I can see that. About ( ② ) schools were helping each other in 2010, but about ( ③ ) schools were helping each other in 2017. But I wonder why.

Takeshi: It's because the *birthrate is going down.

Nick: Oh, I see. We learned that in our social studies class yesterday, right? I didn't know the *fact that the birthrate is going down in Japan. In Finland, it's increasing.

Takeshi: Is it? That's great. In Japan, because of that, there are fewer students now and it's getting difficult for schools to have club activities.

Nick: Oh, no. Are soccer clubs the only ones that need help from other schools?

Takeshi: No, not really. As you can see in Figure 2, there are others, too.

Nick: Wow, that many! The number of baseball clubs is the largest. It is almost four times as large as that of softball clubs. And it looks like the number of volleyball clubs and the number of soccer clubs are similar.

Takeshi: Right. There are also basketball clubs and rugby clubs, but rugby clubs have the smallest number among those six.

Nick: Before I came here, I was in a basketball club in Finland.

Takeshi: Were you? ㊤

Nick: Well... I love basketball, but I want to try something I've never played before.

Takeshi: That's a good idea.

Nick: Is there a rugby club at this school? The school I go to in Finland doesn't have one and I've been interested in it.

Takeshi: Yeah, we do have a rugby club!

Nick: Excellent! Then I will probably join the rugby club here!

Takeshi: Sounds perfect!

Dear Mr. Green,

I am *applying to the Dalaba Tourist Company for a job and the company has asked to give the names of two people who are ready to be as my *referees. I hope you will be one of them.

I first heard of the job through a friend of mine who has worked for the company for three years. He told me that with my language skills and interest in traveling abroad, I would be *fit for the job. If I get the job, it will give me a wonderful chance to travel all over Europe. In the summer months from May to September, I will do the work of a guide to large groups of American tourists. During the winter months, I will spend a lot of the time in America, and there I will help to get tours ready for the next season, but if I'm lucky they may even give me one of their African tours to do then, so I am very excited!

I haven't been in a hurry to find a job. As you may know, I got very good *marks for my exams, and I must thank you for all the help you gave me. I'm sure I was able to pass the exams because you taught me so well in everything.

Now I am preparing for this job, and I've decided to learn Italian. As you may know again, I've already learned to speak German and French quite well, and so that fourth language won't be too ( A ) for me to learn. I'm sure I'll be much more helpful to the company when I become good at it. I'm looking forward to hearing from the company.

I hope that you've had a good summer holiday.

Yours sincerely,

Michael Clifford
